College Council
2021-2022

Objective:

The College Council (CC) is the major committee which is responsible for strategic planning and its implementation both in academic and non-academic processes of the College. The committee acts as liaison between the Management and the College. All the processes in the College Campus are decided by the Committee. All the initiatives of IQAC are discussed in the Council and the same will be communicated to GC for further approval.

Composition:

The committee is chaired by the Principal and all Heads of the Departments are its members. It also consists of the Librarian, Placement Director, Physical Education Director and the Office Superintendent.

Roles & Responsibilities:

1. The College Council Committee is responsible for the smooth functioning of the college.
2. To take the Policy Decisions for quality improvements in the College.
3. To take necessary steps to bring discipline in the Campus.
4. To take necessary steps to implement VTU regulations.
5. To take necessary steps for smooth conduction of Continuous Internal Evaluation (CIE) and Semester End Examination (SEE).
6. The College Council meets at regular intervals to take policy decisions and also reviews the progress of each process.
7. The decisions of all the other committees can be discussed in the Council

Thus the College Council Committee is responsible for overall development of the College.
