- becomes known to the public through no fault/action of the Recipient in violation of the terms herein;
- is legally known to the Recipient at the time of disclosure by the Disclosing Party;
- is furnished by the Disclosing Party to third parties without restriction; or
- is furnished to the Recipient by a third party who to the Recipient's knowledge legally obtained said information and the right to its disclosure.
- is developed independently by Recipient without use of or reference to the Disclosing Party's information.

2. Restrictions on Use

- (a) The Recipient will not disclose any Confidential Information to third parties for any purpose without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party. However, where the Recipient is required to disclose Confidential Information in accordance with judicial or other governmental action, the Recipient will give the Disclosing Party reasonable prior notice unless such notice is prohibited by applicable law.
- (b) The Recipient will not use any Confidential Information for any purposes except those expressly contemplated or authorized by the Disclosing Party.
- (c) The Recipient will take the same reasonable security precautions as it takes to safeguard its own confidential information, but in no case less than reasonable care.
- (d) The Recipient undertakes to impose the confidentiality obligations on all directors, officers and employees or other persons who work for the Recipient or under its direction and control, and who will have access to the Confidential Information.
- (e) The Recipient will return all originals, copies, reproductions and summaries of Confidential Information in its control, or confirm its destruction as requested by the Disclosing Party.

3. Action on Breach

- (a) The Recipient will notify the Disclosing Party immediately upon discovery of any breach of this Agreement by the Recipient, and will cooperate in every reasonable way to help the Disclosing Party regain possession of the Confidential Information and prevent further breach.
- (b) The Disclosing Party will be entitled, without waiving any other rights or remedies, to seek such injunctive or equitable relief as may be deemed proper by a court of competent jurisdiction.
